

Directions to the Poudre River Trail

The Poudre River Trail is located in Weld County, Colorado, running in a East-West direction between Windsor and Greeley. It is approximately 50 miles north of the Denver Metropolitan area. There are several locations to catch the trail depending on where you are coming from.

Coming from Interstate 25

- Exit going East at Exit No. 262 which is Highway 392 going towards Windsor
- Go East for 1.5 miles, turn left (North) onto County Road 3
- Turn right (East) onto County Road 32E
- The entrance to River Bluffs Open Space will be on your right in 0.25 miles

Here you will find a shady parking lot, restrooms, a drinking fountain and picnic tables. The trail starts at the South end of the parking lot.

Coming From Highway 85

- Head toward Greeley on Highway 85
- Exit at 5th Street, going West
- Turn North (right) at 11th Avenue
- Turn West (left) at D Street
- Continue until just West of the Arena, then turn North (right) onto N 14th Avenue.
- At the end of the street there is the Bunkhouse. Drive around the Bunkhouse to the parking lot behind.
- The Poudre River Trailhead is at the North end of the lot.

From Greeley

There are several trailhead locations where you can hook up to the trail in Greeley

- Island Grove Park, 14th Avenue and D Street
- Poudre Ponds Recreational Fishery, N. 35th Avenue 0.3 miles North of W. F Street
- Rover Run Dog Park, 5207 F Street
- Poudre River Ranch Natural Area, N. 71st Avenue
- Poudre Learning Center, W. F Street and N 83rd Avenue

From Windsor

There are several trailhead locations to catch the trail in Windsor

- Kodak Watchable Wildlife Area, Highway 257, 1 mile South of Eastman Park Drive
- Eastman Park, 7th Street and Eastman Park Drive
- Frank State Wildlife Area, 1/2 mile South of Highway 392 on Weld County Road 13,
- River Bluffs Open Space, Larimer County Road 32E and County Road 3